The safest home for a child is one without firearms. Consider storing firearms outside the home.

Always store firearms locked, unloaded, and separate from ammunition.

Ask other parents about the presence and storage of firearms in their home before your child spends time there.

Learn more about safe storage, violence prevention, and parenting supports by visiting the Strengthening Chicago’s Youth website at www.scy-chicago.org or The American Academy of Pediatrics parenting website www.healthychildren.org